PRAYER TO THE HOLY SPIRIT

Breath in me, O Holy Spirit, that my thoughts may all be holy.

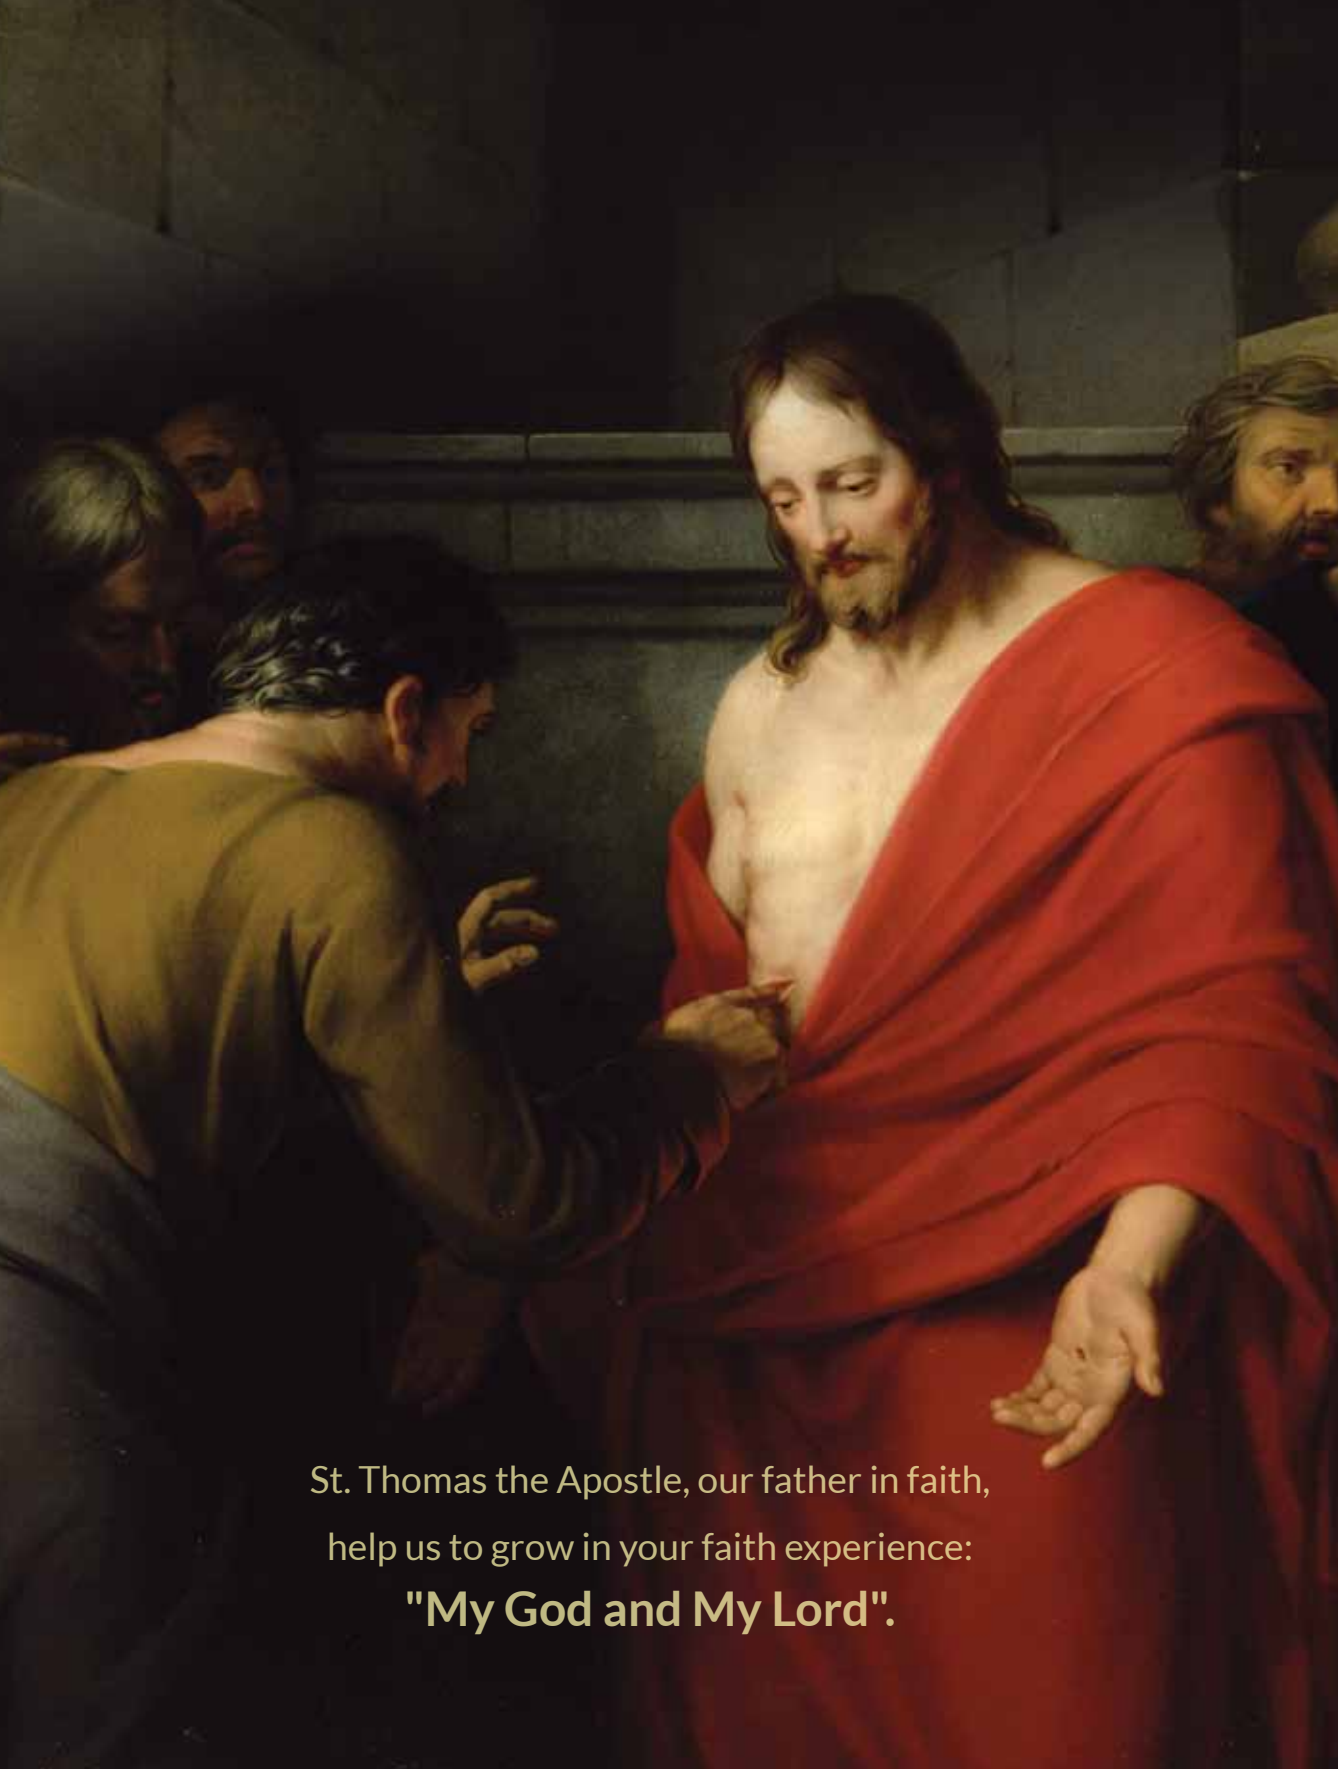

Act in me, O Holy Spirit, that my work, too, may be holy.

Draw my heart, O Holy Spirit, that I love but what is holy.

Strengthen me, O Holy Spirit, to defend all that is holy.

Guard me, then, O Holy Spirit, that I always may be holy. Amen

Patron's Message

Catechesis is an ongoing process and like every other branch of knowledge, this also is a lifelong program. Sunday School is only a reminder that we must spend quality time for deepening our faith. One of the major problems of our Catholic Faith is that we take our faith for granted. It is a wrong concept. Faith will never be a part of a person's life without making a positive effort and consent. Jesus compares faith to a mustard seed; like the seed it is to be planted carefully and nurtured cautiously. It needs regular watering, manuring, and protection from weeds and worms and insects. God the Father is the Farmer and everyone who is involved in faith formation participates in the work of the Father. It is a call and a gift.

We, parents, pastors, teachers and elders are called to be the co-workers of Jesus, the Master. As we begin this year's Catechetical Program, let us keep these thoughts in our minds. The directions given in this Directory and the programs and projects proposed in this Directory are to be implemented in our Diocese from this academic year, 2014-15 onwards. I request everyone to take them seriously and try one's level best to put them into practice so that we will be able to impart to our younger generation the rich treasury of our Catholic Faith. This is the most important mission of our Diocese.

There is an alarming amount of anti-catechesis going on in our world, therefore let us be vigilant soldiers of the Lord.

We are historically, culturally and liturgically a very rich community. Our young ones must be given ample opportunities to experience this richness. Thus our children must come to learn, love, live Jesus and His Church.

There is a beautiful prayer in the Syro-Malabar liturgy, and it goes like this: "Lord our God, enlighten us in your Laws, inflame our minds with your knowledge, and sanctify our souls with your truths so that we may be faithful to your words and obedient to your commandments". The purpose of all our catechetical activities must be this illumination of our minds.

Dear Children, may this year be one of grace, peace and joy for you. I keep you all in my prayers.

Mar Jacob Angadiath

Your loving Bishop

Message

I am so delighted to know that you have planned to make a Directory for our CCD program in the Diocesan level. . Sunday School (CCD) program makes a parish community active and vibrant. During the summer vacation time, I have noticed that our church and its premises were looking very desolate and dull. Once the CCD begins our church becomes active. Sunday school program is the high light of our parish life. Besides it teaches the fundamentals of our faith, CCD helps children to enter good relationship with their friends too. It teaches God centered values making an ideal environment for nurturing their friendship. It cultivates active participation in church activities and experience in faith traditions. The Gospel is taught in creative age-appropriate ways so that children develop a deeper understanding for the word of God. It fosters a deeper relationship with Christ

“Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewing of our minds, so that you may discern what is the working of God- what is good, and just and whole.” Rom 12:2. The mission of Catechesis is entrusted to each of us by virtue of our baptismal call. The goal of Catechism is the conversion and growth in the spirit of the whole person: mind, soul and body to God. Catechism should be Christ centered; it is living and learning in the midst of a Christian community that shares, nurtures and strengthens the faith of the individuals who make up the church. Our goal must be to integrate our students with the Holy Qurbana making our faith expressed and experienced for their formation. Let our CCD program help us to look at the world in which we live through a lens formed, informed and transformed by the life of Jesus Christ and help us make a difference in this community in the spirit of Christ Jesus.

I take this opportunity to appreciate you, the diocesan Director, DREs and all our teachers who have spared good amount of their time for the CCD program and their dedicated service for the parish communities in its achieving Christ given goal of “Go, therefore, and make disciples of all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, and teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you”. Mat 28: 20.

With Prayerful wishes

Foreword

“For the disciples of Christ to evangelize is an obligation of love.”

(Pope John Paul II)

Teaching catechism is an obligation of love for everyone who loves Jesus. The love of Jesus must impel all of us to become formators and transmitters of faith.

What we are doing now is the continuation of what has been going on in our Diocese for the last thirteen years. The Church is a continuity.

Every academic year is a time to renew our vision, and put in new efforts to make our catechetical activities more timely and effective. Let us together, pastors, parents, teachers and students try to open new vistas in the faith formation program of our diocese.

This Calendar is a sign board for all of us to follow in our diocese in pursuing the goals of our Faith Formation Program. Together we are real spiritual brothers and sisters. We believe in togetherness. Let us work together to achieve our goals.

Dear Teachers, to be a catechism teacher in your parish is a real honor. You are participating in the new evangelizing mission of the Church. The Lord is our reward. I thank all our CCD teachers for their faith, trust, dedication and vision. Because of people like you we dare to dream for our Church in U.S.A. As we work together everyone will come to appreciate the beauty, richness and holiness of our faith which we inherited from St. Thomas the Apostle. We must not be satisfied with the ordinary practices of spirituality, but always be seeking for new ways to accumulate all the treasures of our rich Tradition.

It is said that a bad teacher tells, an average teacher explains, a good teacher demonstrates and a great teacher inspires. Be sources of inspiration for our students.

This year we will be publishing work books for grades 1 to VIII. We try our level best to publish them as early as possible, however it is a time consuming task.

We are a diocese in this country for the last fourteen years as an organized community. We have to go a long way and our new journey must start from our CCD classes. Everything in our church must begin with Christ and continue with Christ and must end in Christ. This is the meaning of catechism.

May I humbly request everyone's wholehearted co-operation in achieving our aim- forming Christ in the lives of our children.

Dimensions of Catechesis: An Overview

What is Catechism?

The Greek word catechesis means ‘instruction by word of mouth’. It is basic Christian religious education of children and adult converts to Christianity. According to the Catechism of the Catholic Church “Catechesis is an ‘education in the faith’ of Children, young people and adults which includes especially the teaching of Christian doctrine imparted, generally speaking, in an organic and systematic way, with a view of initiating the hearers into the fullness of Christian life” (CCC, prologue # 5).

Aim of Catechism

Catechesis aims at making the candidates to encounter Jesus Christ, the Truth, the Life and the Way (Jn 14,6). Catechetical classes do not aim at mere imparting of some knowledge about God; rather it should help the students to have a deep, intimate and personal relationship with Jesus Christ. It should be a means to encounter Jesus in their lives. In his apostolic letter ‘Catechism Today’, Saint Pope John Paul II enumerates that the vision/aim of catechesis is to help the faithful to believe and practice the faith that Jesus is the Son of God and to build up the mystical body of Christ, i.e., the Church (no.1).

Catechesis aims at, Christ being formed in the faithful. St. Paul’s words provides correct vision about the aim of catechism: “My children, I am going through the pain of giving birth to you all over again, until Christ is formed in you” (Gal 4,9).

Mission of Catechesis

As per the General Directory for Catechesis, knowledge of faith, liturgical life, moral formation, prayer, communal life, missionary spirit are the six tasks of catechesis.

1. Growth in Faith through Knowledge and Experience

The primary mission of catechesis is to make growth in faith life through continuous nurturing and providence. Catechesis should make the candidates aware of the foundations of Christian faith. It aims at making one mature in Christian faith. The knowledge of God, imparted in the Catechetical classes, should lead one to the experience of God. Here comes the importance of catechesis through liturgical celebration.

2. Liturgical Life

The most important celebration of our faith is the celebration of the Holy Qurbana. All our learning, prayers, celebrations and blessings are oriented to and derived from the Holy Qurbana. The fundamentals of catechesis; teaching, formation and transformation, find their realization in the liturgy. What is taught in the classes should form the life so that it shall be transformed according to the Gospel principles. Liturgy, especially the celebration of Holy Qurbana where Christ’s teaching is carried out through the Word of God, prayers and hymns, give formation to the faithful so that they may be transformed as His true disciples. So liturgy is catechesis in action. If liturgy is not illumined by proper catechism, it will be empty and meaningless action. At the same time if catechesis is not directed to active liturgical life, it will be merely an intellectual process. What should we aim is a liturgical catechism. Therefore proper emphasis should be given to liturgical formation so that participants can encounter and experience Jesus during its celebration.

3. Formation of Conscience

Formation of conscience depends upon the values and principles learned and appreciated. Through catechesis the candidates should know the Christian values revealed in Sacred Scriptures and Church teachings, so that they can mold a good conscience founded on the gospel principles of faith, love, goodness and truth. The formation of right conscience is important to discern and follow the will of God in our personal and community life. Catechesis is of great importance in the formation of conscience.

4. Prayer Life

What we believe and celebrate should help us to live with a vital relationship with the living and true God. This is actualized through a prayer life. Catechesis should help one to be united with God through prayer. This relationship with God is implied in the question “Where are you?” (Gen 3:9).

5. Communitarian Life

Communion with God necessarily leads to communion with fellow beings. Faith formation should help one to become a member of loving community of faithful, i.e., Church. The communitarian dimension of Christian life is well expressed in the question “Where is your brother?” (Gen 4:9).

6. Missionary life

To be with the Lord is meant to send out with a definite purpose. Catechesis is a process of being with the Lord so that one may be send to the world with a definite purpose of being true witness of Jesus Christ in the world.

The Role of Family

Family has the primary responsibility in the formation and transformation of faith. Parents, by word and example are the first heralds of the faith with regard to the children. Praying parents are the first agents of faith formation. Every family should be a centre of faith formation through a life based on prayer and gospel values.

The Role of Parish

After the family, parish is the space where life of faith is manifested. Catechetical classes are the extension of the proclamation of the Word of God, performed during the celebration of the sacraments, especially the Holy Qurbana. Just like Jesus gave burning experience in the hearts of the disciples of Emmaus through the explanation of the Word of God, catechetical classes should provide spiritual enlightening in the life of candidates. It should open their eyes of faith so that they can recognize Jesus during the celebration of the breaking of the bread.

Difference between East and West

There are differences between the West and the East in their approach towards theology; however both are complementary, like the two lungs. In the West, theology is more a class room exercise; therefore it is more an intellectual process. In the East, theology is more centered on prayer and meditation. It is more related to heart and has an experiential nature. The experiential nature of Eastern theology is to be given right emphasis in the catechesis, especially in a society where people thirst for real God experience.

Rev. Dr. Sebastian Vethanath

“Young people today... will be very likely to reject some of what they learn, or to refuse to integrate it in their lives, if it is not taught in ways makes sense to them emotionally, spiritually, and intellectually”.

The Twelve Keys of the Craft of Catechesis

1. Holistic: Catechesis must include the four dimensions of our faith: Profession of Faith (the Creed), the celebration of Christian Mystery (the Sacraments), Christian Prayer (Our Father), Life in Christ (the Commandments).
2. Graceful: Maintain the primacy of grace: God is first, grace is first. God and His work come first in catechesis.
3. Organic: the truths of our faith together form a living unity.
4. Personal: personal realities lie at the heart of catechesis: the Holy Trinity, Christ, Paschal Mystery, Human Person
5. True: Teaching the faith as one and true; mystery of faith as true, and one can know them truly, though cannot know them fully.
6. Attractive: Present the beauty and goodness of the faith. Impart the joy one gets from faith.
7. Purposeful: Present the loving plan of the salvific work of God. From the beginning God acts with a purpose, and everyone finds the meaning of one's life in the dynamic history of God's plan.
8. Faithful: "Recognize... Remember... Never forget" (Leo the Great). Present the teachings in life context of the catechized. Teach the whole Truth in the light of redemption.
9. Evangelizing: Proclaim the faith for an ongoing conversion.
10. Scriptural: Scripture leads the presentation of doctrine. Present Scripture as the divine force of doctrine and its inspired source; not simply present Scripture as "proof-testing".
11. Liturgical: the rule of prayer is the rule of faith. The liturgy expresses what we believe. We need to catechize both toward liturgy and also from liturgy.
12. Prayerful: Catechesis is a prayerful pedagogy, because the history of salvation is the history of prayer. Make catechism a school of prayer.

General Directions

“The definitive aim of catechesis is to put people not only in touch but in communion, in intimacy, with Jesus Christ. Only He can lead us to love of the Father in the Spirit and make us share in the life of the Holy Trinity.”

(Catechesi Tradendae)

Bring our children closer to Jesus is the primary aim of all our catechetical activities. Thus everyone who goes through our catechism school must be able to develop a Christ centered faith and spirituality. “Catechists catechize others by first catechizing themselves”.

The first and the primary catechists are parents and their lives form the basic catechism texts. Parents must be aware of their role in all faith formation programs. Teachers along with the parents are the guiding spirits and role models. Jesus taught with authority, in Parables and in villages. Jesus' authority was moral, which one possesses when one has an excess of good qualities in life. Parables urge one to make a decision for or against the teacher and his teachings. In villages means in the actual life situations of the people. A catholic teacher must teach with authority, in parables, and in villages.

A catechism teacher needs to be a person with moral authority and must be able to urge one's students to arrive at a life changing decision. Teaching is not imparting a bundle of intellectual information to the minds of the students but a facilitating act which helps the student to become a participative learner.

We aim at a lifelong and lifewide formation. Faith formation is not confined to the catechism school and the catechism hours. It must go beyond always and everywhere.

Catholic catechesis is inalienably linked with spirituality. It is the work of the Holy Spirit. The Spirit brings one closer to God, the Holy Trinity. Holy Trinity brings us all to the awareness that spirituality is interpersonal communion. The relationship in mutual love is to be fostered by every catechetical effort. “In so far as I am not love I am unintelligible to myself”. In one word “divinization” is the aim of catechesis.

Healthy Practices to be followed

The following are the general practices we must try to follow this year in our catechism :

- Holy Qurbana is the source and summit of our catechism. Every Sunday catechism must begin with or conclude with the Holy Qurbana. This Qurbana is to be celebrated in English, the first language of our children.
- Solemn Holy Communion will be in the 3rd grade. The book, First Holy Communion published by our Diocese will be the text for preparing children for Holy Communion.
- Catechism class must begin with the school assembly. The procedure for the assembly can be the following:

a. Recitation of the Peace prayer together

Lord make me an instrument of Thy Peace.
 Where there is hatred, let me sow love.
 Where there is injury, pardon.
 Where there is doubt, faith.
 Where there is despair hope.
 Where there is darkness, light.
 Where there is sadness, joy.
 O Divine Master, grant that I may not
 So much seek to be consoled as to console,
 To be understood as to understand,
 To be loved as to love.
 For it is in giving that we receive,
 It is in pardoning that we are pardoned,
 And it is in dying that we are born to eternal life

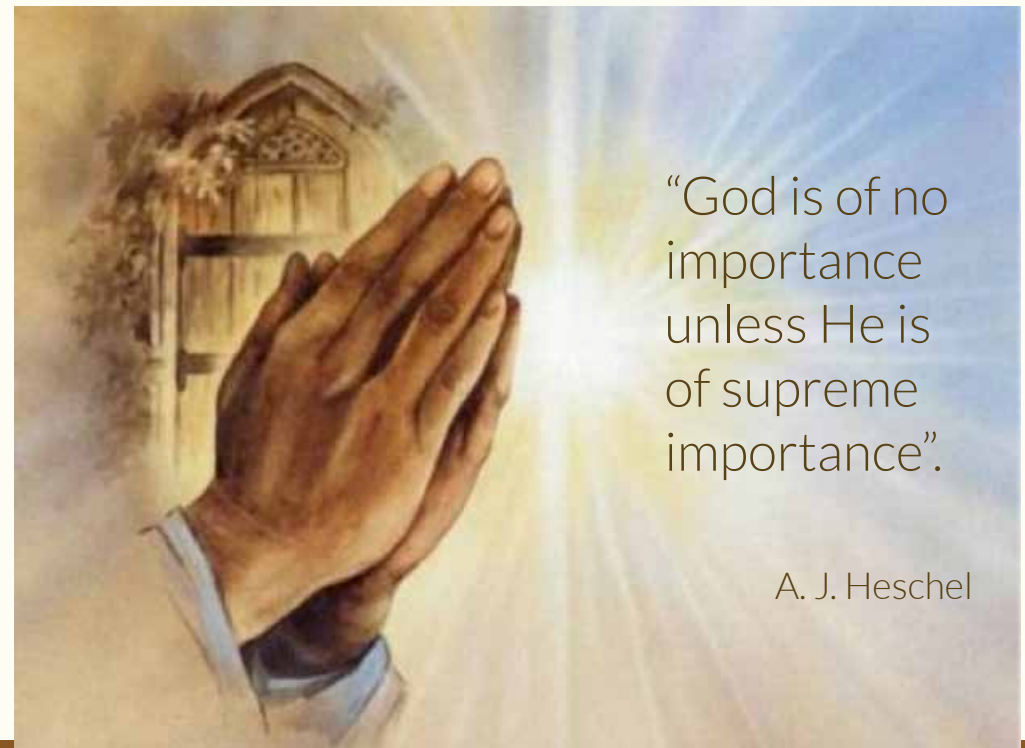

Amen.

b. Pledge

I / the CCD Student / pledge myself /
 To be faithful to my call / towards universal brotherhood / and

- It is a healthy academic practice that a term for the principal is established by every parish.
- Our teaching must be learner centered. Education is what institution does, learning is what persons do.

CCD SYLLABUS 2014-15

No textbook is perfect. Our CCD text books are inter-linked ones, therefore to get a conceptual vision every teacher must read all the text books of all the classes. The text book is only one of the resources, not the sole source of teaching and learning. Make use of all the available material to make the teaching-learning process effective.

Learning takes place when there is repetition, especially in junior classes. The repeated material is presented each year with new depth and clarity. Use technology to make the lessons vivid. The personal relationship of a teacher with Christ is the most important source of teaching. Inspire the students to love and live the Gospel. No teacher works in isolation, ours is a common effort.

“It is not fitting, when one is in God’s service, to have a gloomy face or a chilling look”.

St. Francis of Assisi

A Good Teacher

- will live what one teaches.
- will be a great teacher by elevating the average student to his/her highest performance.
- life will be a message for students.
- will develop a spirit of enquiry in the students, so that they may blossom into creative persons.
- will treat all the students with love and respect.
- will impart quality education.
- is doing an important service to the growth of the Church.
- will celebrate the success of the students.
- Teacher must help the student to set a goal in his/her life; help to discern a vocation.

Qualities of a Teacher

- An engaging personality and teaching style
- Clear objectives for lessons
- Good classroom management skills
- Good communication with parents
- Knowledge of curriculum and standards
- Passion for learning and teaching
- Exemplary Catholic life

Measures to Aid Observance of the Code of Conduct

To help me keep the promises in the Code, I will:

- Report any suspected child abuse to the proper authorities.
- Avoid physical contact when alone with a minor. Physical contact with minors can be misconstrued, especially in private settings.
- Avoid overnight stays with a minor unless there is another adult present in a supervisory role.
- Avoid providing overnight accommodations for minors in private residences or rectories.
- Avoid driving alone in a vehicle with a minor.
- Refrain from giving expensive or inappropriate gifts to a minor.
- Avoid meeting privately with minors in rooms, offices, or similar areas where there is no window or where the door cannot remain open. If one-on-one pastoral care of a minor is needed (e.g., Sacrament of Reconciliation) avoid meeting in isolated locations.
- Exercise caution in communicating with minors through e-mails or the internet.
- Only share work/ministry related e-mail addresses with minors. Do not participate in chat rooms with minors.
- Ensure that all activities (extra-curricular, catechetical, youth ministry, scouting, athletics, etc.) for which you are responsible have been approved in advance by the appropriate administrator.
- Have an adequate number of adults present at events. A minimum of two adults in supervisory roles must always be present during activities for minors.
- Release young people only to parents or guardians, unless the parent or guardian has provided permission allowing release to another adult.
- Avoid taking minors away from the parish, school, or agency for field trips, etc. without another adult present in a supervisory role. Obtain written parental permission before such activities. Permission slips should include the type, locations, dates, and times of the activity and emergency contact numbers.

Practical Suggestions

These are some practical suggestions for identifying permissible and impermissible conduct.

Conduct that May Be Permissible

Appropriate affection between Church personnel and minors constitutes a positive part of Church life and ministry. Nonetheless, any touching can be misunderstood and must be considered with great discretion. Depending on the circumstances, the following forms of affection are customarily (but not always) regarded as appropriate.

- Verbal praise.
- Handshakes.
- “High-fives” and hand slapping.
- Pats on the shoulder or back.
- Hugs.
- Holding hands while walking with small children.
- Sitting beside small children.
- Kneeling or bending down for hugs with small children.
- Holding hands during prayer.
- Pats on the head when culturally appropriate.

Conduct that is Not Permissible

Some forms of physical affection have been used by adults to initiate inappropriate contact with minors. In order to maintain the safest possible environment for minors, the following are examples of affection that are not to be used:

- Inappropriate or lengthy embraces.
- Kisses on the mouth.
- Holding minors over four years old on the lap.
- Touching buttocks, chests or genital areas.
- Showing affection in isolated areas such as bedrooms, closets, staff-only areas or other private rooms.
- Touching knees or legs of minors.
- Wrestling with minors.

- Tickling minors.
- Piggyback rides.
- Any type of massage given by minor to adult.
- Any type of massage given by adult to minor.
- Any form of unwanted affection.
- Compliments that relate to physique or body development.

Syro-Malabar Major Archiepiscopal Church

Syro-Malabar Major Archiepiscopal Church is the second biggest Oriental Catholic Church in the world. St. Thomas the Apostle is the founder of this church who came to India in 52 AD. Syriac, the dialect of Aramaic language spoken by Jesus Christ, was the liturgical language of this Church till 16th century. This church makes use of the anaphora of the apostles, Addai and Mari, the most ancient anaphora of the Christian world. This anaphora was developed in the Syriac Churches of Mesopotamian region, basing on the greatest faith proclamation of St. Thomas the Apostle: “My God and My Lord” (Jn 20:28).

The words ‘Syro’ and ‘Malabar’ give insights into the origin and roots of this apostolic church. The word ‘Syro’ connects the Church with great traditions of Syriac Christianity. The word ‘Malabar’ is used to denote the state Kerala in India.

This Church has 31 dioceses. The church is blessed with more than 40 lakhs faithful, 53 bishops, 8,547 priests, 32114 religious nuns, and about 1500 seminarians. St. Thomas Syro-Malabar Catholic Diocese of Chicago is the first diocese established under Syro-Malabar Church outside India. This diocese has 33 parishes and 39 missions in different parts of USA and Canada.

Media Evangelization

The vision

The Department of Media Evangelization stands for enhancing the Faith, through the development of a media-mindful community in the Syro-Malabar Catholic Diocese of Chicago.

The Objectives

- To complement and facilitate the faith formation activities of the diocese especially that of the ministry of Catechesis.
- To cultivate media mindfulness among youth and children as a part of their character and faith formation.
- To establish media machinery that people can look up to, which stands for Catholic beliefs and values, and which speaks the truth of the matter
- To make every one media literate so that one can become mature and critical media consumers.
- To serve as a reliable resource center for matters pertaining to Christian teaching accessible to all students .
- To harness effectively the current and new media outlets and vehicles such as online news channels, publications and web logs (blogs), content sharing sites such as YouTube, social networking sites such as Facebook, twittering etc. in order to propagate clearly the views of the diocese and that of the Catholic Church at large.

The mission

- To achieve the above objectives,
- A Media Department has to be set up.
 - Give extra focus and emphasis on the media mindfulness of youth and children born and brought up in this country.

Rationale

- We are living in a world where information is increasingly overwhelming, and the attention and concentration of the population is divided and distracted, and in short best described as FICKLE. In addition, the future of our diocese, our children, who grow up in a fiercely competing technology driven world, where the black and white printed words, or the spoken word hardly arouses any interest! It may not be wrong to say that they have a new vocabulary and language, and if we must share effectively to them the beauty of Our Faith, it is imperative that we do it in a way they would understand.
- There has never been such a time in history where the Catholic Church has been attacked with such a venomous vigor by people with vested interests via the so-called Secular Media.
- The easy accessibility to mass media, also presents a dilemma of credibility of information, especially when technology savvy people use them to propagate, attack, ridicule the Church. There needs to be a common platform serving both as an authority for credible information, and at the same time, serving to address doubts, ill feelings and disenchantment that members of the community may be holding before they broadcast their prejudices.
- Faithful have to be informed of the detrimental effects of 'new-age' journalism of 'sound bites' and 'exclusive live coverage'. Because of the cut-throat competition for being to be the first to 'break the news', many journalistic principles fall by the wayside. Profit and popularity have become the primary motive of media. Church needs to highlight this, and also should encourage, persuade and coerce media channels to rectify this situation.
- In an age where idols and superstars generated by the media, define the aims, aspirations, moral and social ethos of entire generations, it is absolutely essential to provide the population with alternative idols that have walked this earth, emulating the Way, the Truth, and the Light of the ULTIMATE SUPER STAR!

The activities

I. Media Education programs:

- Train all to interact with all kinds of media, and help them understand the nature, the strength of modern media, and also the harm it can do if consumers are not critical.
- Ensure that everyone is aware of diocese's media policies and objectives.
- Launch media education activities on parish level. Make it a part of the CCD program.
- Make media awareness a topic of discussion in the marriage preparation program
- Make use of Family (Ward) meetings to give media education. Each parish should have trained people to organize and conduct media education programs.

II. Media Publications

- Help produce value oriented low cost media such as parish newsletters, pamphlets, circulars, magazines, documentaries, DVDs, CDs, etc.
- Distribute these publications so that they reach the target audience (community members) effectively.
- Support and sponsor value-based programs on TV channels, radios etc.
- Encourage the consumers to discuss these programs in small groups like Family Unit (ward) meetings, CCD classes, in pious organizations, etc.
- Every Sunday bring to the attention of the congregation the forthcoming value rich media programs. Encourage them to watch/read it critically.
- Train the public to be on the watch for all kinds of media programs. Encourage and train them to give positive and critical feedbacks to the producers. Public has the power to control media.

III. Use emerging Social Media

Develop a plan for harnessing new social media such as the Internet, Web logs, Content sharing sites (YouTube), Networking sites (Facebook),

Mass Email Campaigns, Internet Polls, etc. (some ideas: establishing an official Facebook network, a YouTube channel, establishing web logs by church leaders, etc.) These have become already mainstream channels to reach out to and mobilize the community.

The context:

- The literacy of the immigrant population of the diocese is very high; the culture in which they live is flooded by secular media; the consumption rate of various media channels is amazing; and the high penetration of a multitude of media vehicles such as Cable TV, Mobile communication, Internet, Facebook etc. is very high especially among the youth.
- There is a high concentration of intellectuals, media personals and thought leaders among the members of the diocese.

Conclusion

New generation is media savvy and information hungry. People have a variety of sources of information at their fingertips. They are provided with different version of the same stories every moment from Blogs, Chat rooms, Text messages, face book, twitter etc. We have to penetrate into and absorb the public effectively and convincingly with our own voice with the help of these kinds of media. We have to take into consideration that the attraction and affiliation to a particular medium varies from person to person, culture to culture and generation to generation. We have to communicate with people in the language and through the medium that is more intelligible to them.

Video Library for Catechesis

Selecting Titles

For selecting titles for the library, there are several sources for good reviews and other useful information. One of the best websites for movie reviews is Catholic New Service which is operating under the United States Conference of Catholic Bishops. The site also has a page which describes the rating criteria used. They also provide a top10 movie list from 1965 to 2009. Another useful list is the Vatican Top 45 which provides a list of recommended movies under three categories (Religion, Values and Art).

Catholic News Services provides ratings mostly on English/Western movies. For documentaries and Indian/Malayalam movies there are no single sources which provide ratings and reviews. However, documentaries produced by EWTN are good value adds for church libraries. For Indian/Malayalam titles, videos created by/for Catholic TV channels are good additions. Other videos, movies or documentaries should be internally reviewed before adding to the library.

A list of recommended titles is also included. The prices mentioned are from online sources like Amazon.

Target Audience

Movie ratings alone may not always indicate the target audience. Also, due to cultural differences, a movie rated A-I (General patronage) by CNS may contain themes or visuals that are not appreciated by everyone. Identifying and classifying movies based on the target audience is to be done internally. Here are a few sample categories.

- Videos to be (or can be) shown for the whole community or groups (Children, Youth, etc.)
- Videos that has to be explained/discussed along with the screening. Ideally, such discussions are to be led by a priest (or an expert) .
- Videos that can be watched by children without adult supervision
- Videos to be watched by the whole family together
- Videos with mature themes, language or visuals but has relevant content. These are usually restricted, but may be must-watch for people doing certain jobs/roles.

Question: How will we classify the movie “The Passion of Christ”?
